

Corporate Power in a Changing World: Regulation, Human Rights, and Democracy

Funded by
the European Union
Grant n. 101061342

22 MAY 2026

Online Event 14:00 - 18:00 CET

Connect online by scanning the QR code

Corporate Power in a Changing World: Regulation, Human Rights, and Democracy

22 MAY 2026

Organizing Committee:

Elena Assenza; Elisa Giuliani;
Verdiana Morreale; Giulia Rossello
- Rebalance Observatory

Information:

rebalanceprojecteu@gmail.com

REBALANCE
OBSERVATORY

Funded by
the European Union
Grant n° 101061342

program:

14:00 - 14:05] Welcome and Opening Remarks

14:05 - 15:30] Session I: Business and Human Rights,
Rule of Law, and Corporate Accountability

Chair: Olena Uvarova

- Sanna Strom (London South Bank University)
Human rights accountability: the BRAVE database and the Corporate Actors and the Rule of Law Index
- Gabrielle Holly (Chief Adviser at Danish Institute for Human Rights)
Engaging in the Omnibus I process: preserving core elements of business and human rights regulation amid shifting political priorities
- Maria-Therese Gustafsson (Stockholm University)
Rethinking Regulatory Change: Business Positions and Supply Chain Due Diligence in the EU
- Arianna Rossi (International Labour Organization, ILO)
Decent work in supply chains - the role of the ILO
- Flaviano Bianchini (Source International)
Business and human rights in practice. Cases from the ground

15:30 - 16:45] Session II: Environmental Regulation,
Industrial Policy, and Strategic Lobbying

Chair: Tim Bartley

- Francesco Zirpoli (Ca' Foscari University of Venice)
Business influence on EU regulatory processes
- Tommaso Pardi (ENS Paris-Saclay) The EU "Incomplete" governance and the (dys)functional role of lobbying
- Philip Schleifer (University of Amsterdam)
The EU Deforestation Regulation in Times of Backlash
- Stefan Renckens (University of Toronto)
Private Assurance in EU Regulation
- Luc Fransen (University of Amsterdam) - Citizen Perspectives on EU Environmental Regulations: New Evidence from Survey Experiments

16:45 - 17:00] Break

17:00 - 17:45] Session III: Populism, Democratic Backsliding, and Corporate Political Strategy

Chair: Francesco Rullani

- Markus Scholz (TU Dresden) - Corporate political engagement to protect democracy: If, when and how?
- Kostas Iatridis (University of Bath)
Business responses to populism
- Elisa Giuliani (University of Pisa)
Dust and the City: Corporate Emissions and Electoral Discontent

17:45 - 18:00] Wrap Up All speakers invited